

THE HALL-MILLS CASE

THE MYSTERIOUS JERSEY TRAGEDY

WATCH FOR TOMORROW'S INSTALLMENT

Responsibility to a great extent for the conduct of the state's case rests with Special Prosecutor Alexander W. Simpson. Police Inspector John J. Underwood and Detective Sergt. Richard Burke (left to right), who have rounded up and examined more than 200 witnesses. Of this number about 125 may be called during the trial.

Vestryman in Dr. Hall's church, Ralph V. P. Gorsline, has been credited with knowing considerable about the minister's clandestine love affair. One witness declared he had spied on Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills.

The night of the murders Gorsline had gone to the Phillips Farm with Miss Catherine Rastall, a Sunday school teacher, but for four years the couple kept their tryst a secret, lying to protect it because Gorsline is married, and they feared exposure.

A former New York policeman, Felix Di Martini, engaged by Mrs. Hall as a private detective during the first investigation in 1922, has been arrested as an accessory after the fact, but is stubbornly resisting efforts to extradite him into the state of New Jersey.

Mrs. Minna Clark, another so-called "love spy," has been taken into custody as an accessory before the fact on the ground that she carried to certain relatives of the minister facts concerning his illicit affair with the pretty choir singer.

Identify Cunniffe's Girl Slain by Bandit Crowley

DETROIT, MICH., Nov. 3 (By U. P.).—The heretofore unknown girl found slain in a Highland Park apartment Sunday with James (Killer) Cunniffe, New Jersey bandit, was positively identified by John F. Froelich of Elizabeth, N. J., as his sister-in-law, Frances Harris, it was announced at the Wayne county coroner's office today.

"Ice Wagon" Crowley, bandit pal of Cunniffe and believed to have slain the "killer," shortly before he was shot to death by a policeman, was identified by Stanley Palmer of Elizabeth, a witness of the robbery, as one of the participants.

No positive identification of Cunniffe as a member of the gang has yet been made.

Leaps to His Death Five Floors From Hospital Window

John Haslan, 28, of Savannah, leaped to his death from the fifth floor of the Neurological Institute at 149 E. 67th St. today.

Haslan had been receiving treatment there for a nervous disorder. Waiting until his nurse had left the room, he went to the bathroom, ripped a bar away from the window and jumped.

He landed feet first, breaking both legs. He was dead when aid reached him. Police are trying to locate his wife, who is believed to be living in this city.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 3 (By U. P.).—More than 200 American missionaries, British sources reported today, probably would be withdrawn from Szechuan Province of China unless anti-foreignism becomes less pronounced there.

He Got All Slicked Up, But Only to Go to Jail

A hair singe, shampoo, shave, mudpack, violet ray skin treatment, shine, manicure and massage, to the tune of $15, purchased but not paid for in the Citizens Barber Shop, 740 6th Ave., landed Charles Rodriguez, 21, living at 137th Street and Broadway, in West Side Court today.

He will be sentenced tomorrow by Magistrate McAndrews in West Side Court after a probation officer makes his report.

A shrimp cocktail, chicken soup, roast beef and trimming, eaten but not paid for at Drake's Restaurant, 119 West 42d St., cost Robert Werner one day in jail, the price being set by the same magistrate.

Gratitude, Not Loan Led Queen to U. S., New Envoy Says

Queen Marie's visit to this country was not prompted by desire for a loan, but by pure friendship.

At least, that was the contention of George Gretziano, new Rumanian minister to Washington, who came in today on the French liner Paris. But Minister Gretziano immediately added:—

"While I have no instructions to negotiate a loan, there is a possibility that later Rumania may seek a fund to develop its agriculture and railroads."

The minister was emphatic in stating that the Queen decided to come here to show personally appreciation for what this country did for Rumania during the war.

"Prince Carol never will be king, but his son, Michael, who is now 5, will be," he added.

Queen Marie
